

- Home
- Muslim Scholarship in the Humanities across the Indian Subcontinent

Events

- Print
- Download PDF

Muslim Scholarship in the Humanities across the Indian Subcontinent

17 - 18Sep2019

- 08:30 AM - 03:30 PM
- College of Islamic Studies
- Auditorium, Minaretein (College of Islamic Studies building), Education City

Qatar Foundation - in line with the nation-wide 'Years of Culture' initiative - is celebrating 2019 as the year to strengthen relations between the State of Qatar and India and build bridges that foster an understanding of the vibrant complexities of both the nations and their people.

As part of this initiative, the Muhammad Bin Hamad Al Thani Center for Muslim Contributions to Civilization (CMCC) at HBKU is hosting a two-day conference entitled 'Muslim Scholarship in Humanities across the Indian Subcontinent' on September 17-18, 2019. The conference aims to highlight Muslim contributions to what is today termed the "human sciences".

Discussions and presentations will cover the following disciplines:

- History
- Language and Literature
- Logic and Philosophy
- Religion
- Education
- Art and Music

Tags:

- Conference
- Qatar
- HBKU
- India

RegistrationTags:

ConferenceQatarHBKUIndia

Hide

HBKUX Upcoming Courses

Browse free online courses in a variety of subjects. Hamad Bin Khalifa University courses can be audited free or students can choose to receive a verified certificate for a small fee

- Sustainability & Major Sport Events: Implementation
- Sustainability & Major Sport Events: Principles