Student Affairs Life Skills for Success

13 - 15 Oct 2019

- 05:00 PM - 07:00 PM
- Minaretein (College of Islamic Studies building), Education City

This course will give participants a set of skills to become effective team members in their workplace and achieve their goals through effective communication.

About the Instructor:

Gyorgyi Pretz is a multilingual life coach with a background in business management. After spending years working in the chemical industry - negotiating global contracts, coordinating production activities and logistics, and driving budget and marketing plans - she chose to change direction and embark on a journey of empowering people and transforming their lives. Climbing the ladder of various professional roles, even assuming the Key Account Manager position at a Belgium based firm in the chemical industry, she is currently working as a Certified Professional Co-Active Coach based in Qatar. Gyorgyi Pretz has completed certifications from The Coaches Training Institute (CTI) and she also holds a Master's degree in Business Management from Ichec Brussels Management School.
