1. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to establish standards for assigning course numbers based on the level at which they are offered at HBKU.

2. POLICY DESCRIPTION

Course numbers provide valuable information to the University’s community; it assigns a distinguished level for courses, which conforms to commonly accepted practices in higher education.

2.1 DEFINITIONS

- Course Code: Up to four-character alpha prefix that refers to the course’s subject
- Course Number: Three numerical digits which follow the course code
- Credit Hour: A unit of measuring the time spent by students on educational activities and is based on the number of contact hours per week in a class. At HBKU, a credit hour is equivalent to one contact hour per week, spent in direct contact with faculty instruction. It is also the equivalent of a minimum of two contact hours per week for other modes of instructions for the entire academic semester.
- Freshman: A first-year student who earned 0-29 credit hours
- Sophomore: A student who earned 30-59 credit hours
- Junior: A student who earned 60-89 credit hours
- Senior: A student who earned 90 or more credit hours
- Bridging Courses: Graduate or undergraduate courses necessary to bridge a gap of knowledge in a discipline to meet background entry requirements in a specific discipline. Bridging courses do not count towards the graduate degree requirements.

2.2 POLICY STATEMENTS

1. Courses at HBKU are defined by a course code and course number. The course code defines the abbreviation of the subject area as approved in the program’s study plan.
2. A program of study may have more than one course code. Each course code will be specific to a subject area.
3. The first digit of the course number shall designate the level of the course as follows, while the remaining two digits shall be used for numbering the course’s identification.
   - 001-099: Pre-college courses that are not recognized for credit or to satisfy degree requirements at HBKU;
   - 100-199: Freshman-level courses that introduce the foundation of a discipline or general education courses and do not require prior college experience;
   - 200-299: Sophomore-level courses that constitute an intermediate level between introductory and advanced level in a given discipline, or general education courses that require prior University experience;
HBKU Academic Policies Manual
