1. PURPOSE
The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines for introducing changes to the curriculum of academic programs.

2. POLICY DESCRIPTION
Periodic review of the curriculum facilitates continuous improvement of academic programs. The faculty of the program holds the primary responsibility for the content, quality and effectiveness of the curriculum. This policy outlines the guidelines established by HBKU for curriculum changes.

2.1 DEFINITIONS

- Minor Curriculum Changes: Curriculum changes that do not have a major impact on the program or affect other programs. These include minor changes in a course description, changes in course prerequisites and changes in the time a course is offered.

- Major Curriculum Changes: Curriculum changes that involve multiple colleges or changes in program’s study plan. Examples include adding a new course, course equivalency or substitution, deleting a course, change of a course’s status (core/elective), inclusion or elimination of a defined option, modification (including creation or elimination) of a minor and alteration in the program’s total number of credit hours.

- Substantial Curriculum Changes: Curriculum changes that may lead to the restructuring of the program; changes in the program’s title as it appears in the diploma; alteration of concentration/track (including creation and elimination); alteration of the program’s language of instruction; or major alteration in the program’s admission requirements.

- University Academic Programs and Studies Committee (UAPSC): Appointed by the Provost to advise the University about policies and procedures relating to undergraduate and graduate academics, including polices, curriculum and new programs.

2.2 POLICY STATEMENTS

1. Faculty of academic programs are responsible for the periodic review of program curricula. Any proposal for curriculum changes must originate from the program.

2. A curriculum change proposal should identify the impact of the proposed changes on current students and present a mitigation plan, if needed, to overcome any negative impact on students.

3. Curriculum changes that may have an impact on other programs require approval of the affected program.

4. All proposed changes must be documented on an UAPSC approved form. All approved changes must be documented by the Registrar. The documentation should include the date of the approval and a log of the changes.

5. Approved changes shall be announced to students.

6. If a major or a substantial curriculum change negatively impacts students, they shall be given the opportunity to complete the requirement under the degree study plan at the time of their admission. Impacted students who wish to waive this right must sign a waiver and submit it to the College's Dean.

7. Courses that are not offered over a period of three years may be considered “deactivated”. Deviation from the time limit requires approval from the Dean and the Provost. If, subsequently, the course is to be offered, a new course approval request has to be submitted.

8. Substantial curriculum proposals must identify the requirement of new resources or the release of current resources.

9. The implementation date of approved requests must take into consideration the beginning of the semester and the time needed for implementation in the course management system.

10. Minor curriculum changes must be approved by (if applicable):
    - Program Curriculum Committee;
    - College Curriculum Committee;
    - College Dean. The Dean shall communicate the changes to UAPSC;
    - Provost, who shall be notified by UAPSC.

11. Major curriculum changes must be approved by (if applicable):
    - Program Curriculum Committee;
    - College Curriculum Committee;
    - College Dean;
    - UAPSC;
    - Provost.

12. Substantial Curriculum Changes must be approved by (if applicable):

    - College Curriculum Committee;
    - College Dean;
    - UAPSC;
    - Provost;
    - President;

13. UAPSC is responsible for developing the proposal form and establishing the deadlines for proposal submission and review.
