

Ecky Imamul Muttaqin

Post Graduate Student, Istanbul Sabahattin Zaim University

Ecky Imamul Muttaqin is currently a graduate student in International Finance and Islamic Banking (MA) at Istanbul Sabahattin Zaim University. He holds a BSc in Economics with specialization in Financial Economics and Islamic Banking from University of Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta (UMY) - Indonesia (2018). He speaks Indonesian as a native language, English and Turkish as the foreign language, and some Arabic. He is active in teaching program and social activities. Likewise, he frequently participates as a presenter at numerous national and international conferences.

Mr. Ecky has worked as research assistant at International Program for Islamic Economics and Finance at UMY (2017-2019). His interest includes issues of finance, banking, macroeconomics, and monetary policy.